WELCOME TO AI4AM

The 4th edition of AI4AM2027 (Artificial Intelligence for Advanced Materials) is a premier cross-disciplinary international event bringing together top experts from industry and academia at the forefront of Artificial Intelligence, machine learning, deep learning, and neural networks. The conference is dedicated to accelerating breakthroughs in materials science by refining automated designs for both structural and electronic engineering models, with a strong focus on improving database interoperability and reverse materials engineering.

AI4AM2027 will be co-located with QUANTUMatter2027 under a new joint umbrella: QuAI2027 – Quantum & Artificial Intelligence Summit + Expo 2027. This mega-event is expected to attract 1,000+ global participants, 70+ exhibitors, and 30+ sponsors.

While both conferences will maintain their respective parallel scientific programmes, they will share a dynamic range of joint activities, including a co-located exhibition area, pitching sessions, B2B matchmaking, and the Industrial Forum.

WHY SPONSOR?

- Maximize Brand Visibility: Position your company at the forefront of the industry across all print and digital event materials.
- Drive Business Growth: Showcase your solutions to a highly specialized audience to accelerate lead generation.
- Expand Your Network: Connect directly with global decision-makers and secure high-value partnerships.
- Tailored Opportunities: Choose from versatile sponsorship packages designed to match your specific marketing goals.
- Continuous Exposure: Benefit from dedicated digital presence with your logo and link featured on www.ai4am.net.
